THE CANAL—AN EXTRACT.

"Far in the desert bounds I saw Art's proudest triumph over Nature's law; Where, distant shores and oceans to combine, Her daring hand has traced a liquid line, Uniting lakes, around whose verges rise Mountains, which hide their heads in misty skies:
Each bound within such adamant chain,
For ages tash'd its lonely shores in vain; Till through their barriers, skill and labor led,
The willing waves a long and level bed.
Thus, even in her wildest fastness, man Subdues his step-dame nature's churlish plan."

TO-MORROW.

When travelling alone, quite forlorn, un-friended, Sweet the hope that to-morrow my wanderings may cease,
That at home, then, with care sympathetic attended,
I shall rest unmolested, and slumber in peace.

GOOD NATURE

Has oftentimes something that wants to be corrected in the very principles of it; sometimes it is an agreeable and easy weakness of mind, or an indolence or carelessness with respect to persons and things. But charity is reason made perfect by grace. It is a benefice which arises from a contemplation of the world, from a knowledge of the great Creator, and the relation we bear to him and our fellow creatures: it is that reason into which all duties owing from man to man are ultimately resolved, and when we choose to say in a word, what is the character, the temper, or the duty of a disciple of the Gospel, charity is the only word that can express our meaning.

CHARLES II.

King Charles II. after taking two or three turns one morning in St. James's Park, (as was his usual custom), attended only by the Duke of Leeds and my Lord Cromarty, walked up Constitution Hill, and from thence into Hyde Park. But just as he was crossing the road, the Duke of York's coach was nearly arrived there. The Duke had been hunting that morning on Hunslow Heath, and was returning in his coach, escorted by a party of the guards, who, as soon as they saw the King, suddenly halted, and consequently stopped the coach. The Duke being acquainted with the occasion of the halt, immediately got out of his coach, and after saluting the King, said he was greatly surprised to find his Majesty in that place with such a small attendance, and that he thought his Majesty exposed himself to danger. "No kind of danger James, for I am sure there is not a man in England will take my life to make you King."—This was the King's answer. The old Lord Cromarty often mentioned this anecdote to his friends.

FRANKLIN

Being present at the meeting of some literary society, where many pieces were read, and not well understanding the French when declaimed, but wishing to appear polite, resolved to applaud when he should see a lady of his acquaintance, Mad. de Bouffiers, express satisfaction. After the reading was over his little boy said to him, "but grandpa-pa, you always applauded, and louder than any body else, when they were praising you."

SQUIRREL.

An English school mistress, who had an obliquity in her vision, asked a child what S double e spelt? The child hesitated—"What I do when I look at you," said the mistress? "O now I know—Squint," answered the pupil.

A SAFE PLACE TO KEEP NAPOLEON.

When the question was agitated in London, which would be the safest state to put Napoleon, so that he could not get out, a gentleman who had a long suit depending, advised ministers to put him in a court of chancery.

It was told to Lord Chesterfield, that Mrs.
——, a merchant and scold, was married to a gamester. His Lordship said, "that cards and brimstone made the best matches."

Two men owning twenty dollars, in a bag, in cents—an observer of their bulk and weight said, "it was a pity they were not half-joes." "I'll bet you ten dollars they are so," said one of the owners. "Done," said the observer. And the punster won by showing that half belonged to his partner Joe.

A Doctor having realised a fortune by irregular practice, was desirous of purchasing a coat of arms, to adorn his chariot, and accordingly asked a friend's advice what he had best have for them. "O, Doctor, (said he) nothing will suit better than three ducks, and let the motto, if you please, be, quack, quack, quack."

ALEXANDRIA:

TUESDAY MORNING, December 7.

The following gentlemen have been appointed Directors of the Office of Discount and Deposit of the Bank of the United States in Baltimore, for the ensuing year.

John Donnell, Robert Gilmer, jr. William Patterson, John Hoffman, Wm. S. Moore, Wm. W. Taylor, James Beatty, Solomon Bettis, Alexander Brown, Samuel M. Donald, Frederick W. Brune, Wm. Riggan, James Hutton.

At a meeting of the directors, John Donnell, esq. was unanimously re-elected President.

G. A. Worth, Esq. has been dismissed by the Directors of the Mother Bank of the U.
S. at Philadelphia, from the office of Cashier of the Branch at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Wm. D. Robinson, so long and so cruelly the object of Spanish persecution, came passenger in the James Monroe, from Liverpool. We feel gratified, that he has at length landed on a soil which is cursed by no inquisition—where the hand of power cannot incarcerate the citizen, or leave him to pine in want in a dungeon. Mr. Robinson, from his intimate acquaintance with Spanish affairs, and from his long residence in Spanish territories, may be of peculiar service to the United States, at the present moment.
He has not been idle since his release. We have seen an admirable compendium or chart of our constitution, published by him in London, together with a pamphlet addressed to the Jews in Europe, on the interesting (and at this moment attentive) subject of emigrating to America. [N. Y. pa.]

Extract of a letter from a Physician in New-Orleans.

"Awful indeed, is the picture;—though not more so than that presented by accounts from Mobile, and sundry places on the Mississippi. Eager rapidly to accumulate a fortune, hundreds of our enterprising young men, hie to these southern cities, blooming in all the freshness of our northern climate—gay, joyous, ardent, and in a few days after their arrival, they are no more.—Such is the rate of ninety in an hundred."

It is stated that the Cyane sloop of war carries out two American agents, to reside on the coast of Africa, to protect those people of color who are desirous of returning to their native land, and who may be captured or ill-treated.

Sacket's Harbor, N. Y. Nov. 16.

By the military movements in Canada, we should infer that the time is not far distant when they contemplate another war with this country. Their forces have been greatly augmented this season; their vessels at Kingston are kept in such order, that they can be rigged and ready for sea at a week's notice. Their armies are busily engaged in erecting powerful and permanent fortifications. Kingston at this time is strongly fortified at every point; while at Sacket's harbor, an important military post, there are millions of public property going to decay, and not a single work of defence.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

Mr. George Gibson, near Georgetown, on the Conemaugh river, in boring, for salt water, at the depth of 207 feet, obtained seneca oil which is said to be very pure. Our informant states, that appearances justified him in asserting, that one barrel per day may be poured. The wealth and resources of the western country are daily developing themselves, and the time may not be far distant, when the influence of the west will be felt and acknowledged. [Westmoreland Rep.]

It is stated, in the Augusta Chronicle of the 19th ult. that a free man of color, named Henry Wilson, has been apprehended under strong suspicions of being the incendiary who caused the late distressing fire in that city. He had undergone one examination before the Magistrates, and had confessed, that he had denounced a threat, that one of the persons who had been thrown out of business, if he should recommence, should again be dislodged in a similar way. He was committed for further examination.

Ithaca, N. Y. Nov. 24.

An attempt was last week made by the prisoners confined in the jail in this village, to effect a general delivery, without the aid of counsel, judge, or jury. Tools had been furnished them from without; and they commenced working their way for the cellar.— They had penetrated the first layer of the thick timber floor, cut the sheet-iron between and were boring the last layer, when they were heard and detected; and were bound over in sureties of iron & steel, to test their claims to freedom at the next day and ter-minar. [Am. Jour.]

THE WEATHER.

In the Palmyra Register, of last week, it is mentioned that the season continues remarkably mild and pleasant in that region, notwithstanding the country around has been visited with deep snow. It is also mentioned that a pint of ripe and uncommonly large strawberries were gathered in the preceding week, in the vicinity of that place.

The funeral of Mr. Jacob Gould, lately murdered at Stoneham, was celebrated on Sunday last. The funeral services were performed in the meeting house, and attracted a great concourse of auditors, many more than could enter the house. During the services, the assembly were alarmed by the crashing of timbers in the gallery, and rushed out of the house, at doors and windows in great confusion, but no person was seriously injured. An appropriate sermon was delivered and the services were conducted with a solemnity suited to the melancholy occasion. [Daily Adv.]

Office of the Boston Patriot.

Boston, Nov. 30
Mr. Topliff yesterday received Halifax papers to the 23d Nov.—St. John's the 1st—and Jamaica papers to the 12th Oct.

The Halifax Free Press, of the 23d accuses the American editors of abusing Lord Cochrane in consequence of his taking 142,- 000 dollars, which he found in the possession of an American citizen—states that there is no doubt it was Spanish property—that Cochrane is a brave and gallant officer, perfectly well acquainted with the American character; and as a vigilant British officer has had the good fortune to expose some of the numerous frauds of the commercial men of the United States, engaged in the carrying trade of France, and to rescue enemies property from the protection of a flag which has been lent to every vile and polluted purpose. It concludes its anathema by declaring, that "Cochrane will not be deceived by Spanish art nor American cunning; and that he commands the best affection of the British nation."

* This is a very bold assertion, and we call upon the Halifax editor for his proofs.

Extract of a letter received in Boston, dated Lisbon, Sept. 22.

"The government has issued an order, prohibiting all foreign hard wheat to be entered in the ports of the kingdom of Portugal, for four months, and reducing the duty on soft to 80rs. pr. alq. in lieu of 200rs, paid at present; the order to be in force from the 27th Oct. New-York dates to the end of July, had been received there, stating the existence of yellow fever in Philadelphia, in consequence of which, vessels, persons, and effects, arriving at any port in the Kingdom, from the United States, shall not be admitted except at Lisbon, and there be subjected to a vigorous quarantine—those from ports in Connecticut to Virginia inclusive, 21 days All other ports 12 days. Should the news of an existing epidemic be confirmed, no vessels from the United States were to be admitted even at Lisbon. Captains of vessels arriving at any other port in the Kingdom may, if they please, have their papers purified, and sent to the board of health, and without communications with the shore, await their decision, without proceeding to Lisbon."

A statement of the population at Rome has been published, by which it appears, that in 1818, that city contained 138,812 persons; and 1819, 134,161, making the trading increase of 349 persons.

FOREIGN ARTICLES.

Extract of a letter, dated London, 9th October 1819.

"The scheme adopted by our ministers of giving land and encouragement to those who emigrate to the Cape of Good Hope, added to the melancholly accounts we have from your side, reduces the emigration to your country. Fifty thousand entered their names in one week. Our government send them out free of expense, and make other provision for them."

London, Oct. 30.

Twenty warrant officers (boatswains, gunners, and carpenters,) have been selected from the ordinary at this port, and appointed to the ships on the lakes of Canada. Our naval force there, which cost an immense sum of money to create, is, we understand, going fast to decay. The force on the four lakes, namely, St. Lawrence, Ontario, Erie, and Huron, consists of one ship of 98 guns, one of 56, four of 32, one of 20, two of 12, and five schooners, besides gun brigs.

[Portsmouth paper.]

Newfoundland Gazettes to the 29th Sept. have been received. His Majesty's ship Elector, captain Peckell, had seized an American brig, having on board India goods, which were illegally destined for Halifax from the United States, to the amount of 20,- 000l. The American had gone into La Have in the night, and anchored close along side of the Bellette, (then lying there on the look out for smugglers, which she had information were expected on the coast); and on captain Peckell's sending a boat on board, her cargo was reported to consist of flour and staves; but a strict search being made the above goods were discovered stowed away in a bulk head prepared for the purpose. A crew was immediately put on board from the Bellette, and the vessel ordered for Halifax.

[Paris, Oct. 29.]

The trial of the Editor and publisher of the translation of Mr. Hobhouse's history of the "Hundred Days" took place before the Assize court of Paris yesterday. This translation was originally printed at Chent, and a copy of it was purchased from a traveller in Paris by M. Domecq, one of the defendants in the present case. This copy was shown to the other defendant, Regnault Warin, who thought it might be published if some parts, which reflected with too much severity upon the King and the Royal family, were suppressed. Regnault Warin, undertook the task of erasing the most offensive parts, and these alterations being made, the book was printed. Five copies of the publication were, in pursuance of law, deposited in the public office; 484 copies were sent to Brussels, Ghent, Geneva, Naples, Warsaw, Turin, and other foreign towns. 487 were distributed among the booksellers at Paris, and 25 were presented to the friends of the publishers. The publication was charged as libellous, in having made a formal attack upon the inviolability of the king's person, the order of succession to the throne, and the constitutional authority of his majesty. Several passages in the work were charged as calumnies against the members of the Royal Family. The jury pronounced the two prisoners not guilty of formal attacks upon the inviolability of the king's person, &c. but they declared them guilty of public insults towards the King and Royal Family; and the court, after some deliberation, sentenced Domecq to six months' imprisonment and 1,000 francs fine; and Regnault Warin to one year's imprisonment and 1,000 francs fine.

Constantinople, Sept. 10.

We have just witnessed a great ministrial revolution. The grand Seigneur all at once caused a grand levee to be announced, to which all the Ministers repaired. When they were thus assembled, he began by declaring that he deposited the Mufti, Mustapha Assim Effendi, and appointed in his place the former Grand Judge of Romelia, Hodge Halel, Effendi. A few days afterwards he deposed the Grand Master of the Ceremonies, the Minister of the Interior, and the Grand Marshall. The Grand Admiral was arrested by order of the captain Pacha, and ried on board a vessel moored near the behaved Towers. He was accused of not having behaved with sufficient firmness in the Insurrection of the Janissaries, in the mitting rapine in the Archipelago, &c. convicted on those charges, he was strangled, and his body thrown into the sea.

The following affecting story is from a Sketch-Book of Washington Irving. It is no fiction of Mr. Irvine's imagination.
The brother of "Young E*" who spoken of, is now residing in New-York.

THE BROKEN HEART.

I never heard
Of any true affection, but 'twas nipt, With care, that, like the caterpillar, eat The leaves of the spring's sweetest book, rose.

It is a common thing to laugh at love stories, and to treat the tales of romantic passion as mere fiction of poets and novelists, that never existed in real life. My observations on human nature have convinced me of the contrary, and have satisfied me that however the suface of the character may be chilled and frozen by the cares of the world, and the pleasures of society, there still is a warm current of affection running through the depths of the coldest heart, that prevents its being utterly congealed. Indeed, I am a true believer in the blind deity, and go to the full extent of his doctrines. Shall I confess it?—I believe in broken hearts, and in the possibility of dying of disappointed love.
I do not, however, consider it a malady often fatal to my own sex; but I firmly believe that it withers down many a lovely woman into an early grave.

[Upon this position the author makes some very pertinent remarks—and further illustrate the subject, finally closes with the following pathetic story.]

Every one must recollect the tragical story of young E*, the Irish patriot, for it was too touching to be soon forgotten. During the troubles in Ireland, he was tried, condemned and executed, on a charge of treason. His fall made a deep impression of public sympathy. He was so young—so intelligent—so generous—so brave—so every thing that we are apt to like in a young man. His conduct under trial too, was so lofty and intrepid. The noble indignation with which he repelled the charge of treason against his country—the eloquent vindication of his name—and his pathetic appeal to posterity, in the hour of condemnation —all these entered deeply into every generous bosom, and even his enemies lamented the stern policy that dictated his execution.

But there was one heart, whose en-gush it would be in vain to describe—in happier days and fairer fortunes, he had won the affections of a beautiful and interesting girl, the daughter of a late celebrated Irish barrister. She loved him with the disinterested fervor of a woman's first and early love. When every worldly maxim arrayed itself against him; when blasted in fortune, and disgrace and danger darkened around his name, she loved him more ardently for his sufferings. If, then, his fate could awaken the sympathy, even of his foes, what must have been the agony of her whose soul was occupied by his image! Let those tell who have had the portals of the tomb suddenly closed between them and the beloved they most loved on earth—who have sat at its threshold, as one shut out in a cold and lonely world, from whence all that was most lovely and loving had departed.

But then the horrors of such a grave, so frightful so dishonored! There was nothing for memory to dwell on that could soothe the pang of separation—none of those tender, though melanccholy circumstances, that endear the parting scene—nothing to melt the sorrow into those blessed tears, sent like the dews of heaven, to revive the heart in the parching hour of anguish.

To render her widowed situation more desolate, she had incurred her father's displeasure by her unfortunate attachment, and was an exile from the paternal roof. But could the sympathy and kind offices of friends have reached a spirit so shocked and driven in by horror, she would have experienced no want of consolation, for the Irish are a people of quick and generous sensibilities. The most delicate and cherishing attentions were paid her by families of wealth and distinction. She was led into society, and they tried by all kinds of occupation and amusement to dissipate her grief, and wean her from the tragical story of her lover. But it was all in vain. There are some strokes of calamity that scathe and scorch the soul—that penetrate the vital seat of happiness—and blast it, never again to put forth bud or blossom.
She never objected to frequent the haunts of pleasure, but she was as much alone there, as in the depths of solitude. She walked about in a sad reverie, apparently unconscious of the world around her. She carried a book that mocked at friendship, and lying on the stage or Colchester road, distant about 6 miles from Alexandria, and containing 1423 acres, more or less;—reserving, however, to George Triplett his right to one moiety of the dwelling house and yard. This land has been very considerably improved by judicious cultivation, and there are now growing crops of small grain upon it.

Also, one other tract, being an equal undivided moiety of a tract of land in the said county, contiguous to the foregoing, and supposed to contain 25 acres 2 poles.

The terms of sale will be, viz.—one third of the purchase money to be paid in cash, at the time the property is struck off to the bidder, at whose risk the property will be immediately resold, if the money be not paid. One third payable in six months; & the remaining third in 12 months, to secure the payment of which, a lease on the property will be retained.

Extracts from a Law

Of the Corporation to provide for the speedy extinguishment of Fire, &c. Sec 1. That every proprietor of any dwelling house, or store house within the limits of the corporation, shall, at his or her own expense, provide as many fire buckets, made of good and suitable leather, and containing at least two and a half gallons, as shall be equal in number to the stories in such house. Provided, That no proprietor shall, in any case be compelled to provide more than three buckets for one house. Every proprietor who shall neglect to procure the proper number of buckets in the manner herein directed, shall forfeit and pay one dollar per month, for each bucket he shall so neglect to procure. The proprietors of all dwelling houses and store houses which shall hereafter be erected within the corporation, shall furnish the same with buckets in the manner before prescribed, within two months after such houses shall be occupied; or failing to do so, shall be subject to the penalties before mentioned. 2. Where the proprietor of any dwelling house or store house residing out of the limits of the corporation, shall neglect to comply with the requisitions of this act, the occupier of such house shall within two months after coming to the possession thereof, procure the necessary buckets; and failing to provide the same, shall be subject to the like penalties as are in such case imposed on the proprietor. 3. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of police, once in six months at least, to visit the houses within the limits of the corporation to examine and take an account of the buckets belonging to such houses, and to report to the mayor the names of all persons who shall neglect to provide and keep the same, according to the requisitions of this act. Geo. CORYELL, Sup. Po. pa. 31 & 32.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on Thursday, the 11th inst. a negro man, named DICK, who sometimes calls himself Nick Douglas. He is a small man about 5 feet 6 inches high, and is not a very black man. I purchased him from the estate of Edgar McCarty, esq. Cedar Grove, Fairfax county, Va. and it is likely that he may be lurking about that neighborhood or Colchester, as he has a wife at Capt. Berry's of the latter place; or he may have gone to Loudoun county, as he has lived there in the neighborhood of Wm. McCarty and John McCarty, near Leesburg. He has on and took with him an old grey cloth coat and a brown duster of drab colored domestic cloth. He is much addicted to liquor, and is a coarse shoemaker. I will give 20 dollars if taken in the district of Columbia. Thirty dollars if taken in Fairfax county, and the above reward if apprehended in any other place, and secured so that I get him again; and reasonable charges if brought home. WM. B. STUART. November 16 dtf

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber living in King George's county Va. on Monday the 22nd March, a yellow man named JAMES, about 22 years of age, his teeth wide apart, and cannot speak very quick—had on Virginia cloth clothes and carried off a shaggy great coat, he has a father named Peter Hall, who lives with the widow Morgan, at Oak Hill, Fauquier Co. and his grandfather, old Frederick Hall, is supposed to be living at Mr. Terrett's near Alexandria, and it is likely he may be lurking about there. I will give the above reward for apprehending and securing said fellow so that I get him again, and reasonable charges if brought home. J. H. WASHINGTON. Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against harboring or carrying off said fellow. dtf June 14

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Aldie, Loudoun county, Virginia, on the night of the 11th inst. a negro man, who calls his name NED BIAYS. He is a shrewd, intelligent negro, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; 30 years of age, well made, active and polite. Had on when he went away, a sky colored coat, and corded pantaloons. His right eye sore, apparently occasioned by a blow, the blood having settled around it. His ears have been pierced, and had green silk in them when he went away. It is expected he is now lurking about Fairfax court-house and Aldie. The above Ned Biays ran away on the night of the 25th of last Aug. and was caught on the 11th inst. on the night of which he effected his elopement by drawing the staple to which he was fastened by the handle of a pan, while there was no person in the kitchen but himself. He was caught on the 11th inst. a few miles below Aldie, but I think it improbable that he has gone near the same place again. I will give 100 dollars if he is taken out of the county, and fifty if taken in the county, and secured so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges if brought home. GEO. GULICK. P. S. It is supposed that the said negro has obtained papers of freedom, or a free pass, or something of the kind. G. G. November 17 3w

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAURENCE, who assumes the surname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met within the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bearskin overcoat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse clothing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses. I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him. Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home. I. T. STODDERT. West Hutton, near Allen's Fresh Post Office, Charles county, Maryland. Aug. 6 dtf

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on the 25th of April last, a man called NED, formerly the property of Mr. Fitzhugh, of Fairfax, and by him sold to Hepburn & Dundas. He had on when he went away an old country blue and white cloth coat, and kersey trowsers—his right hand in a sling, in consequence of the kick of a horse. Ned is a stupid looking fellow, and hesitates very much when he speaks. I will give fifty dollars if apprehended in the District, or the above reward for apprehending him out of the District, so that I get him again. AGNES DUNDAS. Mount Eagle, May 19 dtstutstf

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor, Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling.

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case; and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or dissatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment.
